

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

When the media are manipulating the news in their interest rather than the interest of providing information to educate people to make their own choices, things have gone too far.

All citizens have the right to expect that if they are reasonably diligent in getting their news and doing their research, they will have the FACTS that they need to make their own choices. In order for democracy to work for the people of the United States, people need information and not opportunistic media.

Thank you.
